Motion for Judgment

The facts having been established/ the law being clear/ the critical need for redress without doubt/ jurisdiction proven and without response, because the law is clear; and every court/ state and federal; is demanded to obey the law. This is a case simple and plain about constitutional law: I ask not for complex or intricate matters within law. Thereby this is in effect “a friendly suit”/ as this moment; there is no intent to push for “concepts including tyranny/ anarchy/ or other forms of failure in employees that work for us all. Rather I demand the law, of this United States constitution be met/ and provided to me and this people. With the full faith and credit federal constitutional requirements demand of this judiciary, and these defendants/ and all other states. That is my guaranteed right/ and needs no court case in a fair and legitimate court to attain it. Even so, I am here demanding the sworn duty of this court/ this president/ this attorney general/ and this solicitor general: to protect and obey all constitutional law. That is your job.

This is my duty to the nation as presented to me, by the foundation documents which form our government, of the people.

Rule on this motion!
