

Total US tax collected for fiscal year 2010=	$2,330,377,000,000
Total refunds returned fiscal year 2010=	467,302,973,000
Actual US income	$1,863,074,027,000
Considered the most reliable download; could not find 2011
Current social security expenditures	$731,000,000,000
Latest medicare/ins expenditures	$769,000,000,000
Total expenditures for these added together	$1.5 trillion
Considered reasonable to use the data from two consecutive years
Leaves the US federal government with	$363,074,027,000, for the year.
Current federal government expenditures	6.3 trillion
Every trillion dollars= one hundred million people paying	$10,000.00 each.
Median average income (all workers) for year 2008	$33,048.00
Total us state government tax revenue for 2010	$514,626,256,000
All States, tax income divided by 100 million workers=	$5146.26
IL tax income taken: 2010	$21 BILLION/ SPENT: OVER 140 BILLION
IL population 12,830,632 per citizen taken (babies and all)	$1636.82_
IL DEBTS ADDED: for 2010	$119 billion.
Federal tax expenditures per 100 million workers=	$63,000.00
Total state and federal expenditure per 100,000,000 workers=	$68,146.00
TOTAL debts for usa $121trillion. Total assets listed	$155.2 trillion
Divided by 308 million citizens= $504,056.81 EACH! Do you see the inflation?

Do you see a problem? Claimed employment was 155 million current / minus unemployed 12,710,000 current 142,290,000 employed: 16 years and up, all civilian categories.

<http://www.irs.gov/taxstats/article/0,,id=102886,00.html>

<http://www.cbpp.org/cms/index.cfm?fa=view&id=1258>

http://www.usgovernmentspending.com/illinois\_state\_spending.html

<http://www.bls.gov/eag/eag.il.htm>

<http://www.federalreserve.gov/releases/z1/current/accessible/15.htm>