All paper petitions MUST include a description that identifies correctly; why, and what, this person signed for! Such as, in accordance with the petition purposes listed on www.justtalking7.info : we demand the legal right: to prove the democratic authority of we the people, through class action lawsuits. In such things as extreme experimentation/ or weapons of mass destruction/ or overreach by business or industry as the case may be. Therefore I sign: with name and address. One signature per petition only; circle the petition description above and address. One signature per petition only, circle the petition description above